

Supplementary Fig. 2. Cumulative incidence of the primary outcome. The primary outcome was defined as a composite of a 50% decline in estimated glomerular filtration rate (eGFR) from the baseline value or onset of end-stage kidney disease (ESKD) during the follow-up period. ESKD was defined as initiation of renal replacement therapy, including dialysis and renal transplantation, or eGFR of <15 mL/min/1.73 m².